Goodwin & Associates Hospitality Services adds Peter Jones and Todd Crawford in leadership roles

A nationwide leader in outsourced human resource and mystery shopping services for the retail hospitality industry expands with a national executive recruiter and fully enters the Florida market

MANCHESTER, NH, September 25, 2007 (PRWEB) ---Goodwin & Associates Hospitality Services, a leader in outsourced retail hospitality human resource and mystery shopping, is pleased to announce the following two staff additions:

- Peter Jones as National Executive Recruitment Manager

Serving most recently as Vice President of Operations for the 17 unit Weathervane Seafood Restaurants in MA, ME, NH, VT and NY; and previously with Uno's; as National Executive Recruitment Manager. Peter will work with client companies in restaurants & hotels filling executive and corporate positions, including: Regional and Area Managers; Vice Presidents; CEOs; CFOs; Directors of Purchasing, HR, Marketing and Culinary.

- Todd Crawford as Florida State Director

Serving most recently as Area Director for Atlantic Bread Company in Atlanta, as Florida State Director. Todd will work primarily in the Orlando and Tampa Bay market, yet will lead Goodwin's efforts in the nation's foremost hospitality employer market.

"We are very excited to bring someone of Peter's caliber to our team and to assist our current and future clients in attracting top executive level talent to their organizations. Having someone dedicated exclusively in this arena has been one of our company's goals for over a year – and something our clients have been asking us for," commented Eric Goodwin, President.

"With the importance of the Florida market to the hospitality industry nationwide, Todd Crawford puts real world experience on call for our clients seeking the best talent and hospitality services possible. Todd is a seasoned pro and we know he will be well received in the important Florida market."
